

Lynda Ward

clinic hosted by Walden Ridge Equestrian Center

February 23 - 24

Lynda Ward is a popular and well-respected dressage and eventing freelance coach and trainer operating out of Waterdown, ON. Lynda is currently competing at the Prix St. George level with Eltaz Eclipse, a client owned horse. She trains regularly with 6-time Olympian, Christilot Boylen and 2-time Olympian, Belinda Trussell. Lynda is also an experienced and accomplished eventer. She competed up to CCI level with Kilcarrick, a horse she started and trained herself. With Kilcarrick, Lynda competed at Rolex and Fairhill International CCI events. She was also short-listed for the Canadian Eventing team and qualified for both the Pan Am Games and the Olympics. Lynda has a talent for working with riders of all levels. Her style is encouraging and friendly, but she is able to push horse and rider to new levels.
